Get discovered tomorrow and perform during the WGUS birthday bash.

The southern gospel station 102.7 WGUS is hosting a birthday bash at the USC Aiken Convocation Center on Saturday.

The event features the live music of The Booth Brothers and The Triumphant Quartet. Local gospel musician Bobby Sanders will open the show at 5:30 p.m. with The Booth Brothers set to take the stage at 6 p.m.

The winner of a talent contest will perform their winning song prior to the start of The Booth Brothers.

Daywind/Red Hen will be holding a talent contest starting at 10 a.m. at the USC Aiken Convocation Center.

Rick Schweinsberg with Daywind/Red Hen from Nashville, who helped discover Sanders, will be the main judge for the talent contest along with several other local judges.

Only the first 30 entries will be accepted.

The entry fee is $100.

Schweinsberg will also conduct a special meeting for all entrants who wish to know more about the Christian Music Industry.

The first-prize contestant will receive 10 track leases and six hours of studio time at Daywind Studios in Nashville along with opportunity to perform at Saturday's performance.

Second prize is $150 in Daywind Sound tracks, third prize is $100 in Daywind Sound tracks.

The talent contest is free to attend and open to the public; however, all attendees must hold a ticket for the evening The Booth Brothers and Triumphant Quartet concert.

The Booth Brothers are recognized for their "harmony-drenched vocals and warm, easy voices."

The group has toured extensively and has made several appearances on the Bill Gaither Homecoming tours.

Audiences are drawn to their ability to speak through song and their light-hearted humor.

The Triumphant Quartet is dedicated to spreading the word of God through song.

Together the group has a combined 80 plus years of singing experience and draws an enthusiastic fan base.

Tickets to the WGUS Birthday Bash are $15 per person.

Tickets are available at the USC Aiken Convocation Center Box Office, online at www.uscatix.com or charge by phone at (866) 722-8877.

Additional ticket locations include Barney's Pharmacy on Peach Orchard Road and the Sunrise Grill in Martinez and North Augusta.
